NEW-YORK CITY.

The Rev. Dr. Justin D. Fulton addressed about 800 people yesterday afternoon in the large hall of Cooper Union, his theme being a comparison of the histories of Savonarola and Edward McGlynn. He devoted most of his time, however, to a denunciation of Romanism, declaring it as bad to-day as it was in the days of Savonarola.

There was a slight fire in a room occupied by a servant at the New-York Infirmary for Women and Children, at Stuyvesant Square, at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, caused by a lighted candle coming in contact with some waste paper. There were about thirty women and children in the place at the time, but the flames were put out so quickly that there was no chance for a panic.

The bark Pilgrim, which left this port on Saturday, put back again and anchored off Stapleton yesterday. Her captain is ill.

Wagonloads of fragrant young pine and hemlock saplings may now be seen passing through the streets, soon to be decked out with candles and toys, and made into Christmas trees for thousands of happy homes.

The Williams College Alumni Association will meet at the Hotel Brunswick to-night. The college band club—three brass and two military—will be present.

A Sunday-school festival, to raise money for Christmas, will be held on Wednesday evening at the Church of the Divine Paternity.

A fair in aid of the Sawyer Memorial Church, at Lexington-ave. and One-hundred-and-twenty-seventh-st., will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, afternoon and evening at No. 239 West One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st.

The funeral of the Rev. Revilo J. Cone, a member of the New-York Presbyterian, took place yesterday at his home, No. 345 East Seventy-second-st. The Rev. Dr. Alexander, of the Phillips Memorial Church, officiated. A large number of friends of the dead minister were present. The burial will take place to-day at New-Haven.

The funeral of Lawrence R. Kerr took place yesterday at his home, No. 149 East Fortieth-st. Delegates from the Veteran Firemen's, the Volunteer Firemen's and the Exempt Firemen's Associations, of all of which Mr. Kerr was a member, were present. The burial will be to-day at Flushing, Long Island.

The Workingwomen's Protective Union will hold its twenty-fifth anniversary exercises at Chatterbox Hall this evening.

Frank Oakes Rose gave an exhibition which he calls "A Glimpse into the Earth" for the first time at Niblo's Garden last night. The entertainment consisted of stereoscopic views of scenes in many lands, which were briefly described by Mr. Rose. The novelty was introduced of accompanying some of the scenery with vocal and instrumental music.

The twentieth annual meeting and dinner of the Wesleyan University Club of New-York will take place at Clark's on Friday evening. Wesleyan's president-elect, Dr. R. B. Raymond, is expected to be present.

The second annual dinner of the alumni of Claverack College and Hudson River Institute will take place at Clark's on Thursday evening, December 27.

The American Chemical Society held its annual meeting on Friday. The following officers were elected: President, C. F. Chandler; vice-presidents, A. A. Breman, A. C. Hale, F. S. Hunt, W. P. Mason, C. E. Munroe, J. W. Mallet; corresponding secretary, M. Alsborg; recording secretary, D. Woodman; treasurer, J. H. Stebbins, jr.; librarian, W. Rupp.

BROOKLYN.

The trustees of the Brooklyn Bridge hold their December meeting this afternoon.

A meeting of some of the prominent residents of the Eastern District will be held this evening at the home of Joseph E. Knapp, No. 534 Bedford-ave., to consider a project for organizing a Young Men's Christian Association for that part of the city. W. E. Dodge and R. H. Schermer, of New-York, and Edwin Packard, of Brooklyn, will speak.

Henry W. Betts, age thirty-five, a clerk, of No. 330 West Fifty-ninth-st., New-York, was arrested on Saturday night upon a warrant charging him with stealing a diamond ring worth $250 from Mrs. Kate H. Scott, of No. 369 Nostrand-ave., with whom he formerly boarded.

A burglar broke into the room of A. F. Manning, at No. 756 Van Buren-st., early yesterday morning, by climbing on a storm-shed to the second story and opening a window. He secured $24 from Mr. Manning's pocket and made his escape.

A permit from the Brooklyn City Railroad Company to carry her dog on one of the various lines of the company when they are not crowded and the passengers do not complain, has been secured by a lady living on the Heights. The dog is a tiny black-and-tan and the permit is good for three months.

The deaths in November numbered 1,225, showing a death rate of 18.49 to 1,000 of population. There were 1,166 births reported and 489 marriages.
